(h) upon the member being declared bankrupt;

(i) upon the member being removed from a position of trust by a court of law;

(j) upon the member being convicted for an offence under any written law and being sentenced to a term of imprisonment otherwise than as an alternative to, or in default of, payment of a fine;

(k) if the member knowingly fails to declare a conflict of interest relating to any matter under consideration by the Council;

(l) if the member, without lawful authority, publishes or discloses to any person or entity, other than in the course of duty, any confidential information of the University or any other information obtained in the course of duty; or

(m) if the member conducts himself in a manner that is inconsistent with membership of the Council or that brings the University into disrepute.

(2) A member shall not be removed from office on grounds set out in subsection (1) paragraphs (d), (e), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l) and (m) except after being given an opportunity to be heard.

(3) A vacancy due to any reason prescribed under subsection (1) shall be filled within three months of the occurrence of the vacancy in accordance with the relevant provision of section 9, and the member so appointed shall hold office for the unexpired period of his predecessor's term of office:

Provided that the vacancy may not be filled if the unexpired period is less than six months.

(4) The Chancellor may, on recommendation of the Minister, dissolve the Council.

Functions and
powers of the

11.—(1) The Council shall be the governing body of the University and shall exercise general supervisory responsibility over all the affairs of the University including its relations with the public:

Provided that, before determining any matter which affects the academic policy or programme of the University, the Council shall refer such matter to the Senate, if it has not previously been considered by the Senate, and shall take into consideration any recommendation or report thereon by the Senate.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the functions of the Council shall be to—

(a) govern, maintain, administer, dispose of and, save as hereinafter provided, to invest all or part of the property, money, assets, and rights of the University;

(b) take such steps as it determines fit for the purpose of procuring and receiving contributions or raising money in a manner that it deems fit for the furtherance of the aim and objects of the University;

(c) provide for payment of scholarships, prizes, grants and such other payments to students of the University;

(d) after consideration of a recommendation from Senate, determine, in consultation with the Minister, fees to be charged to students;

(e) determine, in accordance with procedure prescribed by the Statutes, individuals to be awarded honorary degrees of the University;

(f) decide, after consultation with the Vice-Chancellor, whether or not any donation, gift, grant, devise, bequest or other bounty to the University should be accepted;

(g) select persons for entry into the University as students, on recommendation of a selection committee established by the Statutes; and

(h) on recommendation of Senate, adopt Statutes of the University.

(3) The Council has powers to—

(a) subject to this Act, enter into any engagement and to accept obligations and liabilities;

(b) demand and receive fees, subscriptions, deposits, fines and other payments and to effect payment of any monetary obligations;

(c) borrow money on behalf of the University and for that purpose, if it considers appropriate, to mortgage or charge all or any part of the real property of the University, unless the conditions of any will, deed or gift or other similar instrument are thereby contravened, and to give such other security, whether upon real or personal property or otherwise, as it deems fit;

(d) invest any moneys of the University, including any unapplied income, in such stocks, debentures, funds, shares or other securities as the Council may, from time to time determine, whether within or outside Malawi and to vary such investments from time to time by sale or re-investment or otherwise;

(e) sell, buy, exchange, lease, rent, grant or take on lease or rent real or personal property or portions thereof on behalf of the University, and to acquire any easement over any property held by any person or to consent to any easement whether public or private over any property of the University;

(f) undertake and execute any trust, the undertaking whereof may seem desirable to the Council for the attainment or fulfilment of any of the objects of the University; and to hold, invest, manage or distribute, in furtherance of and in accordance with any trust direction, discretion, obligation or permission, any property, or income from any property held by it as trustee subject to such trust;

(g) enter into, vary, carry out or cancel contracts on behalf of the University;

(h) compound or compromise any action, suit or proceedings or any debt or claim, and to refer any matter to arbitration;

(i) maintain bank accounts, and to cause proper books of accounts to be kept and audited for all sums of money received and expended by the University and for the assets and liabilities of the University in order to give a true and fair account of the state of affairs of the University and its transactions;

(j) on recommendation of Senate, establish, institute or discontinue schools, centres or institutes or such other academic departments or sections of the University, in accordance with this Act;

(k) determine terms of service and general conditions relating to employment of academic, administrative, technical and support staff and to establish, disestablish or otherwise make or discontinue financial provisions for appointments to such posts;

(l) determine the salary scales and general rates of payment for all categories of staff appointed by the University and other persons commissioned to render services to the University, and to appoint and employ such persons, pay their salaries, wages or fees and, subject to the provisions of the Statutes, terminate the appointments;

(m) make provision for schemes of insurance and pension for persons employed by the University and to subscribe to benevolent and such other funds for the benefit of the employees and to make payments to appropriate beneficiaries, as it thinks fit;

(n) take such steps as it determines appropriate for furthering the objects and interests of the University by making provision for teaching and learning, research, printing and publication of research and other works which may be issued by the University and for the welfare of the staff and the students of the University;

(o) call for reports from the Vice-Chancellor or the Senate, and to review the work of the University in the light of the reports;

(p) make provision for payments to external examiners and other persons to whom it finds it fit to make payments to further the aim and objects of the University;

(q) enter into agreements and other relationships with institutions or bodies, whether academic or otherwise, for such purposes as the Council may determine, including the embodiment within the University of any other institution or body and taking over and assumption of the property, rights, privileges and liabilities of such other institution or body; and

(r) establish such committees as it may determine necessary.

(4) The Council may assign or delegate any of its powers or functions to any one of its committees or officials.

(5) The Council shall, at all times, uphold principles stated in section 6 of this Act and shall put in place mechanisms for ensuring compliance with the principles by its committees, the Senate and all employees and, where necessary, shall employ affirmative action in—

(a) recruitment of staff;

(b) admission of students; or

(c) conferment of any advantage or privilege of the University.

(5) The Chairperson shall keep the Chancellor and the Minister informed on matters concerning the general policy and conduct of the University.

12.—(1) The Council shall meet quarterly to transact business of the University and the meetings shall be held at such times and on such dates and places as may be provided by the Statutes or otherwise as the Council may determine.

(2) The Librarian shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as are assigned to him under this Act, the Statutes, by the Council or as delegated to him, from time to time, by the Vice-Chancellor.

(3) The Librarian shall be under the immediate supervision of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor.

(4) The terms and conditions of employment of the Librarian shall, subject to this Act and the Statutes, be as determined, from time to time, by the Council.

25.—(1) There shall be a Director of Student Affairs who shall be appointed by the Council and, shall be responsible for students' psycho-social support services. Director of Student Affairs

(2) The Director of Student Affairs shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as are assigned to him under this Act, by the Council or as are delegated to him, from time to time, by the Vice-Chancellor.

(3) The Director of Student Affairs shall be under the immediate supervision of the Vice-Chancellor.

(4) Subject to this Act or an order of a court, the Director of Student Affairs shall maintain strict confidence of all matters brought to him by students.

(5) The Director of Student Affairs shall expeditiously investigate any complaint against a member of staff lodged with his office by a student:

Provided that a member of staff against whom the complaint has been lodged shall be afforded a right to be heard.

(6) Where an investigation conducted under subsection (5) discloses a malpractice or disciplinary offence against the member of staff, the Director of Student Affairs shall immediately report the matter to the Vice-Chancellor.

(7) Where the Vice-Chancellor receives a report under subsection (6) he shall, within seven days, commence disciplinary action against the member of staff in accordance with the Statutes or the conditions of service.

(8) The Director of Student Affairs shall hold office for a period of five years on such terms and conditions as may, from time to time, be prescribed by or under this Act or the Statutes.

(9) The Director of Student Affairs shall, subject to satisfactory performance, be eligible for re-appointment for one further term.

(10) The provisions of subsections (7) and (8) of section 20 of this Act shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to the removal from office of a Director of Student Affairs.

Other staff of the University

26. The Council shall employ such other staff as it considers necessary for the efficient discharge of the functions of the University.

PART V—THE SENATE

Establishment and composition of the Senate

27.—(1) There is hereby established a Senate of the University which shall, subject to this Act, be the supreme decision making body on academic matters of the University and shall consist of the following members—

(a) the Vice-Chancellor, who shall be the chairperson;

(b) the Deputy Vice-Chancellor;

(c) all Executive Deans;

(d) the Librarian;

(e) one member from each school elected in accordance with the relevant Statutes, from and by the full-time academic staff holding posts allocated to the school and appointed by the Vice-Chancellor;

(f) one female member and one male member nominated by the Students Representative Council of the University, one of whom shall be a postgraduate student, and appointed by the Vice-Chancellor, who shall attend meetings by invitation, based on the nature of business to be transacted;

(g) Directors of Centres and Institutes of the University as prescribed by the Statutes;

(h) one professor or senior member of the academic staff from each school appointed by the Vice-Chancellor;

(i) two professors or senior members of the academic staff from other public universities, appointed by the Vice-Chancellor; and

(j) such other members, not exceeding three, as may be co-opted by the Senate, from time to time, on such terms and conditions as the Senate may determine.

(2) Members appointed under paragraphs (e) and (h) of subsection (1) shall hold office for a term of three years and shall serve a maximum of two consecutive terms at a time.

(3) A member appointed under paragraph (e) or (h) of subsection (1) shall cease to hold office in that capacity upon—

(a) becoming an ex-officio member of the Senate;

(b) resignation from the Senate;

(c) resignation, retirement or dismissal from the full-time academic employment of the University;

(d) the post he holds as academic staff being re-allocated to another School; or

(e) transferring from the School he was representing on the senate to another School.

(4) A member appointed under paragraph (i) of subsection (1) shall hold office for a term of three years.

(5) The Registrar shall serve as Secretary to the Senate.

28.—(1) The Senate shall exercise such powers and perform such functions as are prescribed by this Act or the Statutes and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the functions and powers shall include the following—

Functions and
powers of the Senate

(a) to approve academic programmes of the University;

(b) to make recommendations to the Council on matters affecting the academic policy and programmes of the University;

(c) to review the academic work of the University and report thereon to the Council;

(d) to make rules governing such matters as are within its powers;

(e) to make recommendations to the Council on fees to be charged to students of the University;

(f) to make recommendations to the Council on admission of students into the University;

(g) to recommend to the Council individuals to be awarded honorary degrees and other distinctions;

(h) to recommend to the Council the adoption, amendment or alteration of Statutes relating to academic administration or any other action in respect of academic matters of the University;

(i) to recommend to the Council the establishment or discontinuance of a School, centre, institute or such other academic department or section of the University in accordance with this Act;

(j) to take such steps as it deems appropriate for furthering the objects and interests of the University including making provision for teaching and research, printing and publication of research and other works which may be issued by the University;

(k) to develop, implement and monitor a quality assurance system for the University; and

(l) to make provision for and award scholarships, prizes, grants and other payments to students of the University.

(2) The Senate may establish committees consisting of its members and such other members as the Senate shall determine fit to co-opt into the committees to deal with such matters as the Senate may specify.

Meetings of the Senate

29.—(1) The Senate shall convene and hold meetings in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Statutes.

(2) Two thirds of the members of the Senate shall constitute a quorum.

(3) The Senate may invite any person to attend any particular meeting or series of meetings for the purpose of assisting or advising the Senate in respect of any matter under consideration.

(4) A person invited to attend a Senate meeting pursuant to subsection (3) shall take part in the deliberations of the meeting which he attends but shall not be eligible to vote.

(5) The provisions of section 15 of this Act shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to members of the Senate and any person invited to attend a meeting of the Senate or a committee of the Senate.

(6) Subject to this Act and the Statutes, the Senate shall regulate its own procedure.

PART VI—SCHOOLS, CENTRES AND INSTITUTES

30. There shall be, within the University, such Schools, centres and institutes, as the Council may, on the recommendation of the Senate, establish.

Schools, centres and institutes

31.—(1) There shall be an Executive Dean of each School who shall be the head of that School and shall, under the general direction of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor, exercise such powers and perform such functions as are prescribed by the Statutes or determined by the Senate.

Executive Deans

(2) The Executive Dean shall be appointed by the Council in accordance with the relevant Statute and shall hold office for a term of three years.

(3) The Executive Dean shall, subject to satisfactory performance, serve a maximum of two consecutive terms at a time.

(4) The Executive Dean may, by thirty days' notice in writing to the Council, resign his post but such resignation, unless expressly so stated, shall not entail his resignation from any other academic post which he holds in the University.

32. Each School shall consist of—

Composition of school

(a) the Executive Dean of that School;

(b) all members of the full-time and part-time academic staff holding posts allocated to that school; and

(c) such other members of the full-time or part-time academic staff of the University as may be co-opted by that school as associate members for such period and on such terms as that school may, in each case, determine.

33.—(1) There shall be a School Board for each school of the University.

School Boards

(2) Each School Board shall consist of—

(a) the Executive Dean of the school, who shall be chairperson of the Board;

(b) Heads of Academic Department in the School;

(c) two students, one female and one male, in the school elected by students taking courses in the School;

(d) two members from relevant industries and professions related to courses offered in the School; and

(e) such other members of the academic staff of the University as may be co-opted by the Board as associate members for such period and on such terms as the Board may determine.

(3) The School Board shall be responsible for planning, management and review of programmes and activities of the school including relations with the University, community, industry and the general public.

(4) The School Board may, from time to time, establish advisory committees to assist the Board in the development of relevant programmes.

(5) Associate members shall have the right to attend all meetings of the School Board by which they have been co-opted, and to take part in its deliberations, but shall not be eligible to vote.

Academic
Departments

34.—(1) There shall be, within each school, such Academic Departments as may be approved by Senate.

(2) An Academic Department shall be headed by a Head of Academic Department who shall be appointed by the Vice-Chancellor in accordance with the relevant Statute.

(3) A Head of Academic Department shall hold office for a term of three years and shall, subject to satisfactory performance, serve a maximum of two consecutive terms at a time.

(4) A Head of Academic Department shall be under the supervision of the Executive Dean of the school to which the Academic Department is assigned and shall exercise such powers and perform such functions as may, from time to time, be prescribed by the Statutes or determined by the Senate.

(5) A Head of Academic Department may, by thirty days' notice in writing to the Vice-Chancellor, and submitted through the Executive Dean, resign from his post as Head of Academic Department, but such resignation, unless expressly so stated, shall not entail his resignation from any other academic post which he holds in the University.

Composition of Academic
Departments

35.—(1) Each Academic Department shall consist of—

(a) the Head of Academic Department;

(b) all members of the full-time and part-time academic staff holding posts allocated to that Academic Department; and

(c) such other members of the full-time or part-time staff of the University as may be co-opted by that Academic Department as associate members for a specified period.

(2) An Associate member shall attend any meeting of the Academic Department and take part in its deliberations but shall not be eligible to vote.

PART VII—FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

36.—(1) The funds and property of the University shall consist of—

Funds and property of the University

(a) such sums as may, from time to time, be payable to the University from moneys appropriated by Parliament;

(b) such sums of money or other property, real or personal, as may be acquired, purchased or received by or transferred to the University, whether by way of gift, devise, bequest, purchase or otherwise;

(c) such sums of money or other property, real or personal, as may accrue to the University in the exercise of its powers or the performance of its functions under this Act;

(d) such sums of money or other property, real or personal, as may accrue to or be received by the University by way of fees, grants, subsidies, contributions, donations, subscriptions, rents, interest or royalties from the Government or any person;

(e) such sums of money or other property, real or personal, as may be donated to the University by any foreign Government or any organisation or person situate or resident outside Malawi; and

(f) such sums of money as may accrue to the University from any trust established by the University.

(2) Where, under the terms of any written instrument, any right, title or interest in real or personal property is expressed to be disposed, granted or conveyed to the University, the said instrument shall, subject to law, have effect as a disposition, grant or conveyance of such property to the Council and shall vest such property in the Council to the extent of the right, title or interest therein expressed to be so disposed, granted or conveyed.

(3) The property of the University shall be payable to, vested in, held, managed and controlled by the Council, in accordance with this Act.

37.—(1) The Council shall cause to be kept proper books and records of accounts of the income, expenditure and assets of the University.

Audit of accounts

(2) The accounts of the University shall be audited at the end of each financial year by an independent external auditor appointed by the Council, in accordance with the Statutes.

(3) The Council shall pay, in respect of any audit held under this Part, such fees, costs and expenses as may be appropriate.

(4) The auditor may require the production of all books, deeds, contracts, vouchers, receipts and other documents relating to the accounts or investments of the University which he considers necessary for the purpose of the audit, and he may summon in writing all such persons, having knowledge of the affairs of the University, as he may think proper, to appear before him at a time to be fixed in the summons, for examination in connection with any document or matter relating to the audit.

Cap. 37:01

(5) Offences and penalties under the Public Audit Act shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to audits carried out under this section.

(6) A conviction under subsection (5) shall not operate to exempt the person so convicted from the liability to do or perform the act, matter or thing required of him.

(7) On completion of the audit, the auditor shall report, in writing, to the Council about the audit generally and on such specific matters in relation thereto as the Council may direct.

(8) The Council shall consider the report of the auditor within three months from the date of receipt thereof.

Accounts and funds

38.—(1) All moneys of the University shall be held in the name of the Council and shall be paid into any one of the following accounts—

(a) the Development Endowment Fund;

(b) the special account;

(c) the capital account;

(d) the revenue account; and

(e) such other accounts as the Council may establish in respect of any trust the Council may, in exercise of its powers under this Act, establish.

(2) There shall be paid into the Development Endowment Fund all moneys that are received by the Council and declared specifically to be payable into that Fund.

(3) The Council shall pay into the revenue account all proceeds received from the investment of the moneys of the Development Endowment Fund.

(4) There shall be paid into the special account all moneys that are donated to and received by the Council for special purposes which are not payable into the Development Endowment Fund or any other account.

(5) The capital moneys and the interest therefrom, of the special account, shall be used and applied for the special purposes for which the moneys were donated and in accordance with the conditions of such donation:

Provided that the Council shall not be obliged to accept a donation for a particular purpose unless it approves of the terms and conditions attached to such donation.

(6) There shall be paid into the capital account all the moneys that are received by the Council for the purpose of capital expenditure.

(7) The capital moneys and the interest therefrom, of the capital account, shall be used and applied by the Council on capital expenditure for the construction and improvement of the University.

(8) There shall be paid into the revenue account—

(a) the interest received from the investment of the moneys in the Development Endowment Fund;

(b) all fees, charges, dues and other amounts payable by or in respect of students;

(c) all revenue grants made by the Government of Malawi or any other Government or any person, organization or trust of the University to the Council for the purposes of the University;

(d) all sums transferred under this Act from the Development Endowment Fund or any other account to the revenue account; and

(e) all other sums received by the Council and not payable into the Development Endowment Fund or any other account.

(9) The moneys in the revenue account shall be used and applied by the Council for the management and operation of the University in such manner and for such purposes as, in the opinion of the Council, are best suited to promote the interests of the University.

39. Subject to the provisions of this Act and the Public Finance Management Act, the Council may borrow, either by way of overdraft from a bank or otherwise, such sums as it may, from time to time, require for the carrying out of its functions and powers.

Compliance with finance related Acts
Cap 37:02
Cap 37:01
Cap 37:03

40. On financial matters, the Council shall at all times comply with the provisions of the Public Audit Act, the Public Finance Management Act and the Public Procurement and Disposal of Public Assets Act.

PART VIII—MISCELLANEOUS

Statutes

41.—(1) Subject to this Act, the Minister shall, on recommendation of the Council, prescribe Statutes for the proper governance and efficient administration of the University.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Statutes may make provision for—

(a) any matter which is required by this Act to be prescribed by Statute;

(b) the creation of permanent committees of the Council or the Senate, as the case may be, the membership of such committees, and the powers, functions or duties to be delegated thereto;

(c) the functions, duties and term of office of any officer of the University or member of the academic or administrative staff, to the extent that such functions or duties or term of office are not prescribed by this Act;

(d) the creation of new offices and posts within the University, the functions and duties attaching to such offices and posts, the duration thereof, and the manner of appointment thereto; and

(e) such other matters, including matters of procedure and discipline, as may be deemed expedient or proper by the Council for regulation by Statute.

(4) The Council shall develop and, by special resolution, adopt proposed Statutes for the University.

(5) Upon adoption of the proposed Statutes by the Council under subsection (4), the Vice-Chancellor shall, as soon as is practicable thereafter, submit to the Minister a certified copy of the proposed Statutes for approval.

(6) Where the Minister does not approve the proposed Statutes, he shall notify the Council, in writing, giving reasons for his decision.

(7) Where the Minister approves the proposed Statutes, he shall cause the Statutes to be published in the Gazette.

(8) For the purposes of this section, the expression “special resolution” means a resolution—

(a) notice of which has been given to each member of the Council, not less than thirty days before the date of the meeting at which it is intended to be moved;

(b) which is moved at a meeting of the Council with not less than two thirds of the total membership of the Council being present at the time such resolution is moved and voted upon; and

(c) which is passed by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the members of the Council present at such meeting.

42.—(1) The Statutes may be amended, from time to time, in accordance with this section. Amendment of Statutes

(2) The provisions of subsections (4), (5), (6), (7) and (8) of section 41 of this Act shall apply, with the necessary modifications, to the amendment of the Statutes.

43.—(1) Subject to this Act and the approval of the Council, the Senate may, for the better carrying out of its functions and powers under this Act, make Senate Regulations by notice published as provided in subsection (3). Senate
Regulations

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, Senate Regulations may provide for—

(a) matters relating to teaching and learning within the University, or to the teaching of any specified subject, periodic reports from academic staff on the progress of students in any subject, school and other like matters;

(b) schemes of study or research and the conditions under which persons may be permitted to embark upon or to continue any such schemes;

(c) a research grant system to support academic, individual and joint research undertakings;

(d) the award of degrees, diplomas or other academic honours and distinctions including honorary degrees and distinctions;

(e) the conduct and supervision of examinations;

(f) the engagement and payment of external examiners;

(g) dealing with general academic disciplinary matters;

(h) dealing with research and development linkages with the industry and other institutions; and

(i) matters relating to activities and progress of centres and institutes.

(3) Any notice made pursuant to subsection (1) shall be published by the Registrar by causing copies thereof to be posted for not less than seven days—

- (a) in a prominent place outside his office;
- (b) on notice boards provided for such purpose in public places of the University; and
- (c) on the official website of the University.

Disclosure of conflict of interest by staff

44.—(1) Where a member of staff of the University or his close relative has any direct or indirect interest in relation to any matter under—

- (a) his consideration, he shall, as soon as practicable, disclose such interest to his immediate supervisor and shall recuse himself from the decision making process; or
- (b) consideration by the Council, a committee of the Council or any other committee of the University, the provisions of section 15 of this Act shall apply, with the necessary modifications.

(2) Where a member of staff of the University fails to comply with provisions of subsection (1), he shall be subject to disciplinary action as provided under the Statutes and the decision made shall, to the extent that it benefits that member of staff or his close relative, be null and void.

Confidentiality

45.—(1) A member of the Council, committee of the Council, Senate or employee of the University shall not publish or disclose to any person or entity, other than in the course of duty, the contents of any document, communication or information which has come to the member's or employee's knowledge in the course of performing his duties.

(2) A member of the Council, committee of the Council, Senate or employee of the University who holds confidential information, obtained directly or indirectly from any source, shall not publish or disclose such information to any person or entity, other than in the course of duty.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) shall be subject to disciplinary action as provided under this Act or the Statutes.

Dispute resolution

46.—(1) Where there is a dispute between the University and a member of staff or a student, the parties shall endeavour to resolve the dispute through negotiation or mediation.

(2) The Minister shall prescribe the rules for conducting negotiations or mediation with respect to disputes referred to under subsection (1).

(3) A dispute referred to negotiation or mediation under subsection (1) shall be resolved within fifteen days.

(4) Where the parties fail to resolve the dispute through negotiation or mediation, either party to the dispute may apply to the High Court for the resolution of the dispute..

47. A summons or other process, notice or document shall be served upon the Council by serving the same upon the Registrar.

PART IX—TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

48.—(1) Any person who immediately before the commencement of this Act is registered as a student with the College of Medicine or Kamuzu College of Nursing under the University of Malawi Act, repealed by the University of Malawi Act, 2019, or under any programme jointly run by the College of Medicine or Kamuzu College of Nursing and any one of the colleges under the repealed Act, shall continue to be a student registered with the University of Malawi, notwithstanding the said repeal.

Savings

(2) A programme or course existing or subsisting at the commencement of this Act with respect to students referred to in sub-section (1) shall continue on the terms and conditions subsisting before the commencement of this Act.

(3) Any act done, power exercised or right acquired by or on behalf of the College of Medicine or Kamuzu College of Nursing under the repealed Act shall be deemed to have been done, exercised or acquired under this Act.

(4) Any Statute or Regulation made under the repealed University of Malawi Act in force immediately before the commencement of this Act—

(a) shall remain in force, unless in conflict with this Act, and shall be deemed to be a Statute or Regulation made under this Act; and

(b) may be replaced, amended or repealed by a Statute or Regulation made under this Act;

(5) All principal officers holding positions at the College of Medicine or Kamuzu College of Nursing of the University of Malawi under the repealed Act, immediately before the commencement of this Act, shall continue to serve in those positions until their replacements are appointed in accordance with this Act.

49.—(1) All property, assets, funds, liabilities, obligations, agreements and arrangements existing at the commencement of this Act and vested in, acquired, incurred or entered into by the University of Malawi on behalf of the College of Medicine or

assets and liabilities

Kamuzu College of Nursing under the repealed Act shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to have vested in, or to have been acquired, incurred or entered into, by or against the University, and shall be enforceable by or against the University to the same extent as they were enforceable by or against the University of Malawi.

(2) Where the transfer of any property under subsection (1) is required, by any written law, to be registered, the University shall, within one year from the commencement of this Act, or within such other period as the written law may prescribe, apply to the appropriate registering authority for the registration of the transfer and thereupon the registering authority shall, at no cost to the University or any person by way of registration fees, stamp or other duties—

(a) make such entries in the appropriate register as shall give effect to the transfer;

(b) where appropriate, issue to the University, a certificate of title or other statutory evidence of ownership of the property or make such amendments on such certificates or in the appropriate register as may be necessary; and

(c) make any necessary endorsement on such deeds or other documents as may be presented on such registering authority relating to the title, right or obligation concerned.

employees

50.—(1) Any person who immediately prior to the commencement of this Act is employed by the College of Medicine or Kamuzu College of Nursing under the repealed Act shall be deemed to have been employed by the University and shall continue to serve on the same terms and conditions of service and, for purposes of determining his rights and obligations, his service shall be regarded as continuous from the date he was appointed by the University of Malawi.

(2) All employees of the University of Malawi at the University Office under the repealed Act, immediately before the commencement of this Act, who are redeployed to the University shall be deemed to have been employed by the University and shall continue to serve on the same terms and conditions of service and, for purposes of determining their rights and obligations, their service shall be regarded as continuous from the date they were appointed by the University of Malawi.

51. Annual budget estimates approved for the College of Medicine or Kamuzu College of Nursing under the repealed Act, in respect of the financial year in which this Act comes into operation, shall be the annual estimates of the University for the remainder of the financial year but those estimates may be varied by the Minister responsible for Finance.
